

Hello Danilo. I'm glad you came to Joinville! I must warn you, though, that the weather here is crazy. You'd better take your umbrella with you every day here. Also, don't forget to bring your best clothes for all possible climates well you have to aim, here we have three shopping malls spread across the city, you have to go to the muller shopping center in the city center it's the best, go up to the viewpoint, well that's it
